Dear Census Partner:

The Charlotte Regional Census Center is seeking qualified applicants to fill more than forty Partnership Specialist positions in Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia. We are turning to our past and current partners to help find qualified applicants for these important and attractive-paying jobs.

Partnership Specialists are charged with developing partnerships with local, state and tribal governments, as well as community and faith-based entities, schools, businesses, media and grassroots organizations. These partnerships will help create a responsive environment when census questionnaires go to households in spring 2010. I have enclosed a brochure that explains the duties of the Partnership Specialist and how to apply.

For some Partnership Specialist positions, the Census Bureau seeks applicants who have professional and/or volunteer experience developing partnerships in African American, Hispanic/Latino, Mexican, Native American, Asian and other minority communities and cultures. Specific cultural and/or language requirements (for example, proficiency in Spanish) are noted in the Recruiting Bulletins (job announcements).

Postings for Partnership Specialist positions are available at www.census.gov/rocha/www or www.usajobs.com beginning September 24, 2008. To receive consideration, an applicant must submit a complete application packet to the Charlotte Regional Census Center by the application deadline specified in the Recruiting Bulletin. This includes written responses to all questions and evaluation criteria shown in the Recruiting Bulletin.

Moreover, from fall 2008 through spring 2009, the Charlotte Regional Census Center will be seeking about 75,000 applicants in our five-state region to help build address lists in pre-census operations. The Census Bureau will use the address lists to mail out 2010 Census questionnaires. Postings for these positions will be available at www.census.gov/rocha/www in November 2008.

I hope you will join us in an all-hands-on-deck approach needed to count everyone in the 2010 Census so that everyone counts. If you have questions, please contact the Partnership and Data Services Program at (704) 315-6004.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM W. HATCHER
Regional Director

Your community is counting on you...

Every 10 years, a census of our population is conducted to determine how many seats each state will have in the U.S. House of Representatives. Census data also help determine how more than $300 billion in federal funds are distributed to states and local communities annually for education, healthcare, roads, and other public services. As a Partnership Specialist, you will help to ensure that everyone in your community is counted. You will also be earning a place in history, as well as the respect and appreciation of your community.
